Introduction

Welcome to Our Community - We Are Glad You Are Here!

Congregation Beth Israel encourages our members to become active participants in the life of our synagogue. Non-Jewish family members are welcome and encouraged to participate fully. Currently, our membership includes more than 230 families – mostly from Whatcom, Skagit and Island counties. We are a Reform congregation, affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism (URJ).

Our congregation, under the spiritual guidance of Rabbi Joshua Samuels, offers weekly Friday night Shabbat services, twice monthly Saturday morning Shabbat services, a monthly Tot Shabbat service, weekly Torah study sessions and ritual observance of all Jewish holidays throughout the year. All are welcome to attend.

Each year Congregation Beth Israel hosts celebrations for the wider community at Passover, Purim and Hanukkah. We also host guest speakers, visiting scholars, authors, performers and other events. Everyone is welcome at these events.

Rabbi Joshua Samuels

Congregation Beth Israel welcomed Rabbi Joshua Samuels as its spiritual leader in July 2012.

Rabbi Samuels previously served Temple Beth Hillel in the Los Angeles area. During his tenure there, Samuels enjoyed teaching adult education courses, organizing annual community-wide days of social action, providing spiritual care to homebound congregants, interacting with the early education students and leading Jews and non-Jews in prayer and Jewish ritual life.

Prior to Temple Beth Hillel, Rabbi Samuels received his ordination from Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion in Jerusalem and Los Angeles. It was during these 5 years that he served Jewish communities in Santa Barbara and Temecula, CA. Samuels also honed his skills in providing pastoral care to hospice and hospital patients working at UCLA Medical Center and Kaiser Home Hospice. In addition, he was the recipient of The Samson H. Levey Memorial Prize for showing greatest promise in the study of Rabbinic literature and Talmud.

Rabbi Samuels attended University of Wisconsin-Madison, receiving a B.S. in Marketing. For six years, prior to entering rabbinical school, Samuels worked in institutional equity sales and brokerage operations in San Francisco and Los Angeles at Sutro & Co., Sanders Morris Harris and Stone & Youngberg, LLC.

Rabbi Samuels is originally from San Francisco. He comes to Bellingham with his wife Nicole, a registered nurse, and their two children, Eytan and Shoshana.

History of Congregation Beth Israel:

The Bellingham Jewish Community has a rich heritage dating back to 1908, when our congregation was formed primarily by Lithuanian immigrants who came to the shores of the far western United States. Please go to our website for a full account of the history of our congregation.

Annual Dues Pledge:

Our annual dues from congregants are, by far, the most important element of our synagogue's operating income. Our expectation is that all families will pledge the maximum that they each can afford to support our congregation. If you have any questions, please contact our Past President. All pledges and conversations are held in the strictest confidence.

Scrip and Amazon:

Here are two ways to financially support the synagogue without any cost to you or Beth Israel! The first is called scrip and this is how it works: you buy a gift card through the synagogue to somewhere you regularly shop, say, for $100 at the grocery store. You pay $100 for it, you spend it for $100 - and the store gives a percent to Beth Israel. The second is through Amazon: when you order, open the Amazon site via the Beth Israel website - click on fundraising, then click the Amazon button. Make your order and Amazon will donate up to 8% of your purchase to Beth Israel. It couldn't be easier! Questions? Contact Joan Wayne at jawayne2@gmail.com

Special services are held for all Jewish holidays. Times and dates for these services will appear in The Shul Shofar and weekly emails, as well as on the synagogue website www.bethisraelbellingham.org. Our services are a welcoming blend of traditional and modern, Hebrew and English, prayer and song. Guests are welcome. Please join us.

Life cycle events are honored, including baby namings, B'rit Milah (circumcision), Bar/Bat Mitzvah, weddings, funerals and headstone unveilings. Sisterhood:

Congregation Beth Israel’s Sisterhood is a women’s group interested in camaraderie and activities that support the synagogue. Sisterhood hosts a Jewish book group and an informal monthly lunch. Many youth attend regional NFTY events. As part of Keshet Center for Jewish learning, teen programming is in development by the Youth Program Coordinator.

URJ Camp Kalsman:

Beth Israel is fortunate to be located about one hour away from one of the newest URJ camps, making it easy for a high proportion of our youth to attend each summer. Campership support is available.
