

June 29, 2013 – Pinchas

The question this Shabbat was whether God rewarded Pinchas for his zeal in killing a couple desecrating the Tent of Meeting, or punishing him. We looked at what kinds of actions taken in the name of obedience are still relevant to us today, and what may have lost its relevance over time.

We also explored the huge idea of what a calendar is, what it is used for, what makes a calendar necessary, and why we study the Torah in the fashion we do every Shabbat.
